

13th Annual Wildlife Weekend

Don't Miss the Exhibitors!

What it Means to Be Green!
With Keynote Presenter,
Anthony Flaccavento!

15-16 October 2010

All Events are free and begin from the Steele Creek Park Lodge!

Friday, October 15th

6:30 pm - Reception, Art Exhibit, Photography Awards

7:00 pm - Keynote Address, "What it Means to be Green".

8:15 pm - Snakes Alive! with Jacob Young

Saturday, 16 October 2010:

8:00 - Bird walk and Banding with John Hay

10:00 am - Nature Walk with Jacob Young

Noon - 1:00 pm - Bring your own lunch; Friends will provide drinks and snacks

Saturday Afternoon Concurrent Sessions

Indoor (Conference Room):

1:00 pm - Fossils and Paleontology - J.R. Arnold

2:00 pm - Sustainable Living with Gary and Nancy Barrigar

3:00 pm - Porchlight Insects - Larry McDaniel

4:00 pm - Birds of Prey - Bays Mountain

Outdoor (Meet on the Lodge Porch):

1:00 pm - Kids' Crafts with Sharon Foster

2:00 pm - Kids' Creek Walk with Ken Turner

3:00 pm - Kids' Geology - Jeremy Stout

4:00 pm - Animal Tracking - Brad Jones